Hanover, June 14, N. S.

THE King, who continues to enjoy a perfect Health, has lately made several Promotions amongst the Officers of his German Troops, whereof 18 Squadrons and 12 Battallions are to assemble shortly in the Neighbourhood of this City, in order to be reviewed by His Majesty. Last Saturday in the Afternoon His Majesty took the Air at Herrenhausen, and did the same the Day following. Yesterday about Noon His Majesty removed from this City to Herrenhausen, where he intends to reside the rest of the Summer. He has taken up there the same Apartments the late King had; and besides His Majesty's Table, there are two other great Tables kept at Court. A great many Strangers are already arrived here to pay their Court to His Majesty, and amongst others, two young Counts of Ottingen. Yesterday Count Dehn, who has resided some Time in England on the Part of the Duke of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttel, arrived here from London, and was introduced this Morning to the King at Herrenhausen. Brigadier Sutton having obtained His Majesty's Leave to make a Tour hither from Wolfenbuttel, is expected here to Night or to Morrow.

Whitehall, June 9.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable the Earl of Kinnoul His Ambassador to reside at the Court of the Grand Signior.

Admiralty Office, June 10, 1729

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being informed that several Seamen have taken an unjustifiable Liberty of absenting themselves from the Ships of the Fleet whereto they belong, and straggling up to Town; Their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that if the Men who have or do absent themselves do not repair on board the respective Ships wherunto they belong by the 10th Day of this Month, they will be taken up and prosecuted as Deserters with the utmost Severity; but that such of them as do return to their Duty by the aforesaid Time, shall not be punished for their Desertion.

By Command of their Lordships, J. Burchett

Stamp-Office, June 6, 1729.

Whereas by a Clause in an Act of last Session of Parliament, to revive the Laws therein mentioned, it is enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, from and after the 24th of June 1729, sell Brandy or other distilled Liquors by Retail, to be drunk in his, her, or their House, or Houses, but such Persons only as shall be thereunto licensed and allowed, in the same Manner as common Alehouse Keepers; and every Person or Persons so selling Brandy or other distilled Liquors by Retail, as aforesaid, shall be subject to such Rules Penalties and Forfeitures, as common Alehouse Keepers now are for selling Drink without Licence. The Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Duties, to prevent the Retailers of Brandy or other distilled Liquors incurring the Penalty for selling such Liquors without Licence, do give this publick Notice.

Hawkers and Pedlars Office, May 27, 1729.

The Commissioners for licensing Hawkens and Pedlars do hereby give Notice, that daily Attendance will be given at their Office over against the Bull and Gate in Holborn, from Thursday June 12, 1729, (Sundays and Hollidays excepted) from Nine a Clock in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two till Five in the Afternoon, in order for delivering out yearly Licences as usual; and all Persons concerned are hereby desired to apply before Midsummer to the Office in London for Licenses, and not to depend upon the uncertain Meeting with the Surveyors in the Country, who have strict Orders given them to endeavour to convict, (and levy the 12 Pounds Penalty on) all such Hawkens as they shall at any Time of the Year find trading without Licences.

East India House, June 4, 1729.
